RE: CONTINUANCE OF CERTAIN OFFICERS IN THE FOOD DEPARTMENT TILL THE END OF JUNE 1946.

Continuation Sheet.

File No.
Current No. 4237 of 44

Letter No.C1-4779/44-45, dated, the 14th April, 1945, from the Director of Food Supplies, requesting sanction for the continuance of certain officers in the department, till the end of June, 1946.

1) The proposals of the Director of Food Supplies requiring orders are:-

A. Continuance of the following officers in the Food Supplies Department till the end of June, 1946:-

Messrs:

(i.) P.N.Krishnaswami.
(ii) H.N.Pallegar.
(iii) V.Venkatachar.
(iv) M.V.V. Naik.
(v) Syed Abdul Rahiman.
(vi) B. Beerappa.
(vii) T. Rangamalliah, and (viii) A.N. Anantharamaiya.

B. Posting a gazetted Assistant to his office in place of Mr. B.M.Abu Baker, who is since transferred as Secretary, The Mysore Spun Silk Mills, Ltd., Channapatna.

C. Authorising the Comptroller to admit in audit the salary bills of the officers (mentioned at "A" above) on the existing scale, pending final orders of Government regarding their continuance

2) RE: "A": The Director's previous proposal re: the continuance of these officers in the Food Supplies Deptt., during the current year, 1944-45, has been dealt with in a separate file. This file was submitted with a draft approving the continuance of the appointments in accordance with certain alterations suggested by the Financial Secretary and the file was marked to the Financial Secy. on 6-11-1944. The file which has been acknowledged by the Financial Secretariat on the ... date, viz., 8-11-1944, has not been received back, though reminded repeatedly.

3) Pending the issue of the Government Order in the above file, the Controller is being addressed, each after month, for the salary bills of these posts on the existing scale. While authorising the payment of the salaries bills from time to time the Financial Secretariat's attention is being drawn to the non-return of the concerned file (vide: last para in the linked file).

4) In the budget estimates of the Food Supplies Deptt, for the next year, 1945-46, necessary provision has been made for the continuance of the above officers.

5) As regards the present proposal at "1" as also those at "2" and "3", the Chief Secretary and Financial Secy. may be consulted.

6) In the file referred to at paragraph (2) it has been ordered that the duration of the appointments of the Rationing Officer, Bangalore City, Asst. Director of Depots and of the two Office Assistants to the Director of Food Supplies may be co-terminus with the food operations while in the case of others the appointments are to continue till the end of June, 1945. Re: Continuance of certain officers in the Food Deptt. up to end of June 1946.

9) I regret to note that the file referred to above appears to have been misplaced in my branch. The Superintendent and the other officials have been directed to make a thorough search for the same and they have still not found it. I am sorry that on account of carelessness somewhere this file should have been held up.

10) Regarding the continuance up to end of June 1945, the pay of the officers referred to above for the current month may be authorised.

11) Regarding the continuance of these officers for the next year (1945-46), this may be considered separately on merits.

12) The continuance of the Police Officer depends upon whether the Police establishment of the Food Department has to be made over to a centralised authority.

25) The question for consideration now is the continuance of the nine officers, Viz:—Messrs (i) R.N. Krishnaswami (ii) H.N. Pallegar (iii) V. Venkatachar (iv) M.V.V. Naik (v) Syed Abdul Rahiman (vi) B. Beerappa (vii) T. Ranganathan (viii) A.N. Anantaramaiya and (ix) Mohammed Sirajuddin Meccai, — in the Food Supplies department during the next year, 1945-46. In regard

Continuance of officers under the D.F.S.

Continuation Sheet. File No. / Current No. A27) of 44 Page. 1945 Vol

(Vide Pg) to this Question the D.F.S. has already stated that the services of all the above officers are required for the Food depn and has sought sanction for their continuance till the end of June 1946.

26) As already noted in para 6 above, the duration of the appointments (i) the Rationing Officer Bangalore city, (ii) the Assistant Director of Food Supplies in charge of depots Bangalore, and of the two Office Assistants (gazetted) to the D.F.S. has been ordered to be Coterminus with the Food operations. Against these four posts Messrs (1) A.N. Ananthanarayanaiya (2)* T. Ranganathaiah (3) H.N. Pallegar and (4) Syed Abdul Rahiman are working respectively at present. Excluding the above officers, the question of the Continuance of the following officers in the Food depn is therefore for Consideration :-

i) Mr. P.N. Krishnaswami — (of the Depn of Land records Survey & Settlement)

ii) Mr. B. Beerappa — (of the Revenue depn)

iii) Mr. M.V.V. Naik — (of the Police depn)

* [He is just now on deputation outside the State in connection with the procurement of food stuffs for the State; in his place Mr. Syed Abdul Rahiman is acting as Asst. Dir. of depots at present.]

'iv) Mr. V. Venkatachar (of the Dept of Industries and Commerce and v) Mr. Mahammed Sirajuddin Meccai (of the Revenue Dept - offg as Probationary Asst Commr).

27) Whether the heads of departments from which the above officers have been lent for food supply work should be consulted in regard to the present proposal of the D.F.S. to continue them in the Food dept during 1945-46, is a point for consideration.

28) Of the five officers noted above, (Para 26) Mr. P.N. Krishnaswami joined duty in the Food dept in November 1943 Mr. B. Beerappa in June 1944 and Mr. M.V.V. Naik in August 1944. Mr. V. Venkatachar has been in the Food dept since the very inception of the food operations in the State, i.e. in 1942. Mr. Mahammed Sirajuddin Meccai has been posted to the Food dept only very recently, (in place of Mr. B.M. Abu Baker - vide note in para 1 B above) - in Notification no 4061/C.B. 3-44-17 dt 16.5.1945 The distribution of work among these officers is shown in the Statement (Flag J) in File No A 151-44 (1,2,3) pmp. 1) We may continue these officers for 6 months and in the meanwhile examine the need for so many officers in the Head Office.

Two Assistants to the Director, one officer for storage Depots and one for Rationing is necessary.

There are, in addition, one Personal Assistant to the addl. Director, one District Superintendent of Police and three other officers (I think). Regarding the District Superintendent of police, I think this question is separately under consideration.

If the Additional Director is continued, then the Personal Assistant has to be continued otherwise This place may be retrenched

Regarding the 3 other officers, whether all or how many of them has to be continued or any place may be given up has to be considered.

The Director has, in another file, asked for an Engineer Officer as Transport Officer and to be in charge of vehicles (Mechanical Engineer is called Transport Officer) If this post is sanctioned, the post of Transport officer in the Head Office may be retrenched.

I agree that this Department has to be promptly and efficiently manned, but at the same time, I think, all posts that are unnecessary may be retrenched.
